

Conversations with Julie Chevalier

Permission to Lie is a collection of stories set in places as diverse as a nudist colony, the corporate world and prison. A brilliant blend of humour, snappy style, insight and compassion fills these depictions of contemporary Australian life.

Julie is a former prison educator, home-school officer as well as a poet, creative writing teacher and writer of fiction. Meet this entertaining and engaging writer at the library in July.

Leichhardt Library

Italian Forum
23 Norton Street
Leichhardt
6:30 pm
Tuesday 19th July 2011

Bookings 9367 9266

Balmain Library

370 Darling Street
Balmain
6:30 pm
Tuesday 26th July, 2011

Bookings 9367 9211

Free event - Light refreshments will be served
All Welcome - Bookings are essential

Leichhardt Council encourages the use of public transport.
For timetable information please call the STA on 131500 or visit www.131500.com.au